FROM THE bethel town office

Town Clerk Merton Brown spent last week in Newport, R. I., attending the New England Municipal Clerks' Institute. The Institute, held in conjunction with Salve Regina College, covered a variety of skills and topics essential to the day-to-day operation of the Town Clerk's office. The program had a modified lecture format plus time spent with individual and group participation exercises as well as extensive skill oriented sessions, thus making the Institute as practical and relevant as possible. Sessions were designed specifically for first year beginners, second year returnees and third year candidates. Each group was at a slightly different level to fulfill the education requirements of the International Institute of Municipal Clerks: that is at least 100 contact hours in three years; of which at least 30 are in Social Analysis and Interpersonal Communications, and at least 50 hours in Public Administration. Merton completed the third year requirements and was awarded a certificate at formal commencement exercises held last Friday evening. Merton attended all three years under scholarship from the Maine Town Clerks' Association.

The Assessors were in sessions on Monday and Tuesday to handle correspondence received regarding 1980 valuations.

Veterans should note that their exemptions were adjusted this year due to the fact that the Bureau of Taxation has certified that the Town of Bethel is assessing at 90% of market value as opposed to 100%. This reduced the $4,000 exemption to $3,600 and the $6,000 exemption to $5,400.

Absentee ballots have been received for the Special Election of Tuesday, Sept. 23. All those qualified to vote who will not be in town on Election Day are urged to give the Town Office a call for absentee ballot instructions.

TELSTAR GRADUATE MEMBER OF ILLINOIS STATE CHAMPION SOFTBALL TEAM

Jackie Gammon, a graduate of Telstar Regional High School, has recently added to one of her many goals. Her softball team, the Casey Snygers of Casey, Ill., became the "Illinois State Champions." While competing with 14 other teams and many of them among the finest in the midwest, the Stingers remained undefeated until the championship game of day five of the tournament. Although they lost the opener, Casey came back to win the final and to be named the new "Illinois State Champions." After the win, the team was escorted around town on top of a fire truck with the supporters honking their horns and flashing their lights. It should be noted that Casey had never finished higher than fifth before the 1980 season.

Jackie, recruited by many teams, decided to play for Casey, and helped Casey live up to the name of "Softball Capital of The World." She hit over .300 for the tourney, threw out a runner at second attempting to steal, and had many timely hits and RBI's. In addition she made two spectacular catches in the last inning of the final

SUDBURY CANADA DAYS ARE A SUCCESS

Over 300 persons attended Sudbury Canada Days in Bethel on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 16-17, sponsored by the Bethel Historical Society. A wide variety of activities all emphasizing heritage themes were enjoyed by all those attending. The activities were centered at the Society's headquarters, the Dr. Moses Mason Museum, but other events were held in various parts of the town.

Sudbury Canada was the original name of Bethel used as a designation to indicate the grant of land veterans from Sudbury, Mass., received for fighting the campaign to conquer Canada in 1690 from the General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Starting the festivities was a children's parade around the Common based on the theme of portraying figures from Bethel's past

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kalinowski and Doris Lawrence went to Newry to the bean hole supper, entertainment and dance Aug. 9. Enjoyed it.

Mrs. Doris Lawrence and Marietta Penley went to Berlin, N. H., shopping Monday. It was a nice day there. Rained here. Wednesday Doris went to Mexico to the beauty parlor and called on Arlene and Jo-Ann Abbott, Roxbury Road.

Several from here attended the Boy Scout Auction at the West Paris Legion Hall Friday evening. The Community Club bought an electric stove, so all hands around, we helped Sunday to get it to the kitchen, and turned on all the buttons, and soon had heat galore. Several will go up Tuesday evening to shine it up before our Saturday supper. The ice box works, if we kick it once in a while as we go by. A new sink spout has been put in. Hope no one borrows this one.

Harlan Abbott's friends came to his house Thursday evening for a cook out and one lady brought a delicious molasses blueberry cake.

Mrs. Jo Sanderson, Cor.
The World's Fair has come and gone once again, and it was so quiet we hardly knew there was one. We used to hear them call off the horse pulling of the different classes. There wasn't any American Legion booth from Bethel this year, where people met to visit with old friends. Seems like they need to put the date back where it used to be, to have it seem like the old World's Fair.

The only familiar sight was Ted Howe on the gate. Early in August the Durgin-Curtis reunion was held at the Durgin farm in Bisbee town. They came from all over to attend, some from Massachusetts and Connecticut and many from Maine. Marilyn Curtis was hostess and the Ladies all brought hot dishes and the dessert was served by Dorothy and Marilyn. It was a lovely get-together.

Clyde Stanton drove Jo Sanderson to Alfred Tuesday to visit Jo's sister and husband, the Al Cran-dall's. Al had suffered a heart stroke a few days prior to their visit, and was hurt quite badly by a fall. He broke his teeth and had a black and blue jaw, but was much improved when Jo was there.

Martin LeBlanc has been spending several days with his mother, Marilyn Curtis.

Sunday, the 17th of August, the Babe Ruth League baseball team held their banquet at the home of John McAllister on Jewett Pond. Five Kezars. A cook-out was held, then the awards presentation, and following that a Father-Son game was played at Jewett field. Swimming and games were also enjoyed. The coach was Ralph Millett, assisted by Robert Truman. The team won the Eastern division championship.

Sunday, Jo Sanderson took her sister, Kay O'Leary and Clyde Stanton to Livermore Falls to visit the girls' father, Walter Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lord of Mexico spent the week end with his parents, the Lee Lord's. Saturday night they all joined Jo Sanderson and Clyde Stanton and attended the I. O. O. F. supper at Bethel. It was delicious as usual.

The last church supper here, was held Tuesday night. They have been well attended this year.

As if there hasn't been enough damage done to the chicken and duck population in the area by wild predators, now there seems to be an epidemic of dogs running at large that are attacking the birds. There were three strange dogs around that were up to no good this week end, and last evening I could hear dogs barking up in the back woods. Could they be running deer?

Walter Harriman of Monmouth purchased a couple of Irene's peacocks, Sunday.

Leslie Moore's father and mother, Woody and Cys Clark, and other relatives from Connecticut are spending the week tenting at Marc and Leslie's. Hope the weather improves for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Cram, Arlene Farr, Pete Chase, Audrey Hadley, Carmen Hadley went to Bailey Island on Saturday.

Mrs. Lula Buck has been discharged from Central Maine Medical Center, Lewiston.

Mrs. Barbara Farr is a patient at Maine Medical Center, Portland.

Andrew Hadley rode in the Tri-County Horse Show at the Fair Grounds on Sunday. He won several ribbons.

West Paris Grange won second prize on their exhibit at Waterford Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Doughty were at Mr. and Mrs. Rex Lindon-doll's camp on Pleasant Pond, Sumner, on Saturday.

Mrs. Joyce Muir of New York is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wager.

Forward Fellowship will meet Monday, Aug. 25.

As if there hasn't been enough damage done to the chicken and duck population in the area by wild predators, now there seems to be an epidemic of dogs running at large that are attacking the birds. There were three strange dogs around that were up to no good this week end, and last evening I could hear dogs barking up in the back woods. Could they be running deer?

Walter Harriman of Monmouth purchased a couple of Irene's peacocks, Sunday.

Leslie Moore's father and mother, Woody and Cys Clark, and other relatives from Connecticut are spending the week tenting at Marc and Leslie's. Hope the weather improves for them.

Sunday River

Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corres.
Sent in by Eva Yates:
A nice clear but cool Monday. Only 45° here at our place. The gardens are right in their prime so we hope it warms up a bit. Flowers are beautiful—it is really the peak of summer and a pretty time of year. The housewives are busy as it's can and freeze and freeze and can all we can if we want to eat. Groceries get higher every day—the middle man is sure reaping a harvest.

Sunday evening callers at the Yates were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billings and Paul of Bryant Pond.

Bear River Grange will be serving lunches and will put on the supper Saturday night at the Trapp-ers Week End in East Bethel at Neil Olson's. Sunday the Grange will serve lunches. It's going to a big time so don't miss it.

Myrna Carter's exchange student arrived Friday, Aug. 15.

Wednesday callers at Eva's and Joe's place were Esther Balentine and Ernest Stevens of West Paris and Julie Daye.

Darnita Yates from Black Point Inn, Scarborough, visited her grandmother, Eva, and uncle, Joe Yates Tuesday P. M.

Wednesday was a happy day for Kevin Smith, son of Mrs. Leroy Kenison, as he caught a 12½ inch trout in Sunday River.

Several from Sunday River attended the funeral Tuesday of Mrs. Mildred Sweeney, Benton Swan's mother.

Evening callers of Joe and Eva Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Adams and Robbie and Laura Hutchins.

Dinner guests of Peggy Blake Sunday were Joe and Eva Yates, Tater Young and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wolf of Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Yates left Sunday for more touring of the Maine coast.

Peggy Blake took in the ball game Wednesday night between the Bethel Blues and the Patriots. Of course the Dads couldn't lick the sons. No way.

Friday morning Peggy Blake, Joe and yours truly donned the "Go Shoes" and left for New Hampshire. We stopped at Rich's and did some shopping—went on up to Berlin and took a look at the new Berlin hospital—it's lovely—then we went to the Northland Dairy Bar for dinner, not lunch, it was a full dinner—then back to Berlin for more shopping—then a stop at the discount store—back to Bethel for more errands and then home at 2:45, and hung up the Go shoes to cool off. They soon came off the hook again as Saturday night was Grange.

Next Grange meeting will be Sept. 13 with installation. It is hoped to have another Grange attend for the service.

There is nearly always a current of air above the water, blowing up or down the course of the river so my highway was cool. On this road there was no other travel to turn out for. I could choose what depth I liked, taking the deeper middle of the road or the shallow sidewalks. Here was a road with no dust. There were many interesting objects to study, as I drifted and could see every inequality at the bottom and every object on it.

The stillness of the afternoon was impressive. The wind puffed with feathery softness and occasionally gave a sigh which lifted the leaves. Along stretches of the banks grew beds of Bur-reeds, a water plant with irislike leaves and flowers that form burlike as green as the leaves, an interesting plant.

The sun came through the woods with rapid steps for its rays were already gliding the distance mountains.

At the entrance to a small "lake" there was a tiny island and just to the right on a small point of land blossomed a pioneer family of jewel weeds, the only ones around. From their stalks profusely hung their jewels.

Just beyond on the shore of the "lake" stood the Turtle-heads. Their appearance is such that their common name seems fairly appropriate.

It was here that I received my biggest surprise. There appeared from the grass just up stream one of a construction crew working on

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

In the years before we built here the maple trees were not only a glory but a heritage from the first owner and were used for tapping for the making of syrup. We cleared the land and built our home. Now the maples spread a bright green canopy over the lawn. When I go out in the morning and look up they seem to nearly reach the sky.

As I sat beneath them cutting beans one morning I reflected that nobody really owns a tree, but a tree graciously accepts all the care you can give it.

The breeze was lovely on this August morning. All around it was a green and flowery world. The last rose of summer was bright and nodded on its stem. Philox, dahlias, peonias, salvia, marigolds and others brightened my work.

In due time the beans were frozen, pickles made, and lunch over. So I decided to spend the afternoon on the pond and Sanborn River.

Near the boat grew some broad leaved arrow-heads, delicately lovely. Many more I saw later.

Across the channel there was a field of pickered weeds, which each year spreads, so narrows the channel.

Going down pond, it seemed as if I pushed through acres of those dainty little floating hearts and of course the Bullhead Lily.

At the entrance to the Sanborn the cherry-pickers, wax-wings, were very active. They were the first that I had seen for the season.

But the most exquisite of all needs no description. The spotless, queenly blossoms with fragrance to spare; these white water lilies nestled among their floating leaves.

The river was low and along its banks at the mouth were the bushes in their green buttons. Just time that I saw still were the bridal white of spring and carried the jasmine fragrance.

Always there is some stream waiting for someone to get his small share of natural heritage close to home. These rivers shape the land, and of the millions of miles of them, some are needed to stay unspoiled and natural. The forests by them are filled with soft green light and shadows and filtering shafts of warm sun. Trees, mosses, lichens, flowering plants, as well as birds and animals live there.

There is nearly always a current of air above the water, blowing up or down the course of the river so my highway was cool. On this road there was no other travel to turn out for. I could choose what depth I liked, taking the deeper middle of the road or the shallow sidewalks. Here was a road with no dust. Just beyond on the shore of the "lake" stood the Turtle-heads. Their appearance is such that their common name seems fairly appropriate.

BETHEL SENIOR CITIZENS
MET AUGUST 13

The Bethel Senior Citizens held their monthly meeting on Aug. 13 at the Congregational Church. There were 87 members and guests present. Maud Danforth circulated the registration book.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Muriel Paudi. A moment of silent prayer was observed in memory of Leona Curtis. Rev. Milleit Cummings offered a prayer which was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The secretary and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. The membership now totals 166.

Floribel Haines reported that nine get-well cards had been sent. Bertha Flanders gave a nice summary of the recent trip to the Norlands.

A trip to York Beach is being planned for Aug. 27. All those planning to go should be at the old A. and P. parking lot no later than 8:30 a. m.

The President announced that the Sheraton Motel in Portland is offering a special discount for Senior Citizens. Also, Mr. Russell of the Oxford Hills Transit Co. is offering a reduced rate to the Maine Mall.

A special welcome was extended to Eugenia Haselton, a former Bethel resident.

Virginia Walker announced that the tax and drug refund application sheets were now available.

Those observing their birthdays were: Barbara Miller, Edna Pierce, and Mary Shaw. The birthday cake was furnished by Betty Blake, Beatrice Conrad, Florence Fifield, Evelyn Reed, Hulda Stevens, Sarah Stevens and Ethel Ward. It was made by Leona Flint.

A special recognition was given to all the sisters who are members of the group and corsages were given to those present.

The next meeting will be on Sept. 10 at Rumford Pond. The Oxford County Senior Citizens will meet on Sept. 11 at the Firehouse in South Paris.

The meeting was adjourned. Rev. Cummings offered the blessing and a nice ham dinner was served.

The Norway-South Paris Senior Citizen Band presented a musical program which was both delightful and amusing. All those present certainly appreciated their talents.

a dam or felling trees. I had seen signs of these workers, the beavers, but didn't expect to see one. This was my moment, just that, for on seeing me it vanished.

Back down stream I rowed to the lower end of Big Pond. Here I saw a lonely sandpiper teetering over rocks; much the same as I do when I cross a stream on the rocks.

The day had not been wasted. I had seen much and enjoyed it all in the three hours that had passed rapidly.

Fay and Ann Holt, Zilpha Di-Arenzo, and I were in Lewiston on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Goggin of Cape Elizabeth were Sunday callers at Mr. and Mrs. Leona Holt's.

Another place in town gone. The Pearson camp, Fairview, has been demolished. It has there by the bridge for over a half century.

We called on Carroll Notage, South Paris, Sunday morning.

Our callers have been: Ruth Hastings, South Paris, Dorothy Field and Albert Frost, Poland, Ann Holt, Bethel, Milton Inman, Local, and Doris Hayes, Local.

Del and Betty Hayes were at the Hayes Homestead on Saturday.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST

Dear Mother and Dad
Yes, we're ok—and the kitchen is busy—cooking and freezing for the winter—things grow much later here in Maine than in your mid west where we hear the farms and cattle are suffering.

Good thing for me, Jane had Rebecca to daily vacation Bible school while I had time to can and make chokecherry jelly. Rebecca had fun there and learned songs—like Jesus Loves Me and the Bible is the Book for me.

Sorry, Daddy and I haven't had time to go to church, we're just too busy—Jane picks up Rebecca for Sunday School. I don't see how they get so much done and we can't seem to catch up. They even read the Bible while we only have time to watch T. V. which Jane's husband, Bob, calls foolishness. Oh well, to each his own.

Daddy and Bob talk a lot about hunting and fishing and can they talk. Bob gets concerned about food prices due to shortages we should expect, resulting from heat waves and floods which the news calls natural disasters—Bob says it's God's work. He talks about the end times—Jesus coming again—calls it the rapture—sounds odd. Yes, mother, I know your Church does not talk about it, but suppose! We do celebrate Christmas, Christ's birthday and Easter when we hear "He is risen." Anyway I talked to Jane about it—this "Jesus is coming again"—because we could not find the word rapture in the Bible—she said to look up Acts 1:11 1 Thessalonians 4: 16, 17 (they are in the New Testament). It said:—

"This same Jesus, he is coming again" and "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout—and the believers will rise to meet the Lord in the air, in the clouds"—there are more words to this—but want to keep it short. When it says in Isaiah 11: 6-9 (the old Testament) "that the wolf will live with the lamb—the lion will eat straw and the little child will play with them." Mother—it gets frightening—here are Jane and

FOR TRI-COUNTY CAUCUSES OF REPUBLICANS & DEMOCRATS

Governor Joseph Brennan has set the dates for special caucuses for the Republican and Democratic County Committees in Androscoggin, Oxford and Franklin Counties for the purpose of selecting party nominees for the November special election for District Attorney.

The special election for Andro-scoggin, Oxford and Franklin District Attorney is required under state law because of District Attorney Thomas E. Delahanty II's appointment as U. S. Attorney.
Janet Mills, who was appointed by Governor Brennan to fill that vacancy, serves only until January.
At that time the winner of the special election will complete the remaining two years of the four year term that Delahanty was elected to serve.

The Democratic joint three county caucus has been set for 7 p. m. on Aug. 24 at Oxford Hills High School, South Paris. The Republican County Committees will select their candidate at a caucus on Tuesday, Aug. 26, at 7:30 p. m.
at the Oxford County Court House in South Paris.

HISTORY OF NEWRY'S
UPPER SUNDAY RIVER SCHOOL
DISTRICT #3

Records show that in 1825 there were 78 school pupils on Bear River and 81 on Sunday River in Newry. In 1829, it was voted to build four school houses in the town. The town was divided into four districts, Lower Sunday River being #1, Lower Bear River #2, Upper Sunday River #3 and Upper Bear River #4. In 1837, when part of Andover West Surplus was added to Newry, two more districts were added on Bear River, the upper #5 and lower #6.

Although new schools were built in some of the other districts at later dates, no record was found of another building in district #3,
the upper Sunday River School, since 1829. In 1831 District #3 had 36 pupils, with a budget of $21.24, or 59 cents per pupil. It is believed that this is in addition to teacher's pay. In 1897, $75 was raised to build woodsheds in Districts #3, #5 and #6. In the early 1940's, when the Town tractor was taken to Sunday River, the shed in District #3 was converted to a garage for the tractor.
The Upper Sunday River School
was closed in 1926 or 1927, and all Sunday River pupils attended the Lower School until that was closed in 1943 and pupils were sent

In 1951, this school was put up for sale by bids, and was purchased by George Stowell. It was later sold to Holman Bacon, and is now owned by his son, Holman Bacon Jr.

M. S. A. D. #44 Superintendent's Newsletter

Dr. Wayne F. Gersen

At the meeting on Monday, Aug. 18, 1980, the Board of Directors adopted a set of goals for the coming year. The establishment of these goals will help to chart a course of action for the year ahead, and help to determine the school district's priorities for the future. The four goals adopted by the Board are:

- Goal #1: Improve student achievement and discipline, with an emphasis on the following:
- Implementing a basic skill program
 - Developing a program for gifted and talented students
 - Implementing an educational program on drug and alcohol abuse in grades K thru 12
 - Improving courses for vocationally oriented secondary students.
 - Creating an Education Steering Committee comprised of community members, Board members, and S. A. D. #44 staff members

Goal #2: Develop a plan to further reduce district operating costs by looking at the following three areas:

- Transportation Costs
- Plant Operating Costs
- Building Options

Goal #3: Provide competitive professional salaries and benefits, and develop a comprehensive evaluation procedure, which could enable S. A. D. #44 to attract and retain highly qualified educators.

Goal #4: Improve communications among the staff, administration, Board of Directors, and community.

In the next two weeks, the administrators in S. A. D. #44 will develop specific plans to meet each of these goals. For example, in order to meet the first goal, the administrators might work with the teachers to establish promotion policies that are based upon the mastering of specific skills; write a grant to implement a program for gifted and talented students; work with Mary Ann O'Connor, the Health Education Resource Council Chairman, and the teachers to make certain the drug and alcohol abuse curriculum is implemented; work with faculty advisory committees at the high school to evaluate the curriculum offerings for non-college bound students; develop strategies for increasing the involvement of the community and parents in the school district; use standardized test results to help assess the Clarice Gibson, Corres.

The North Waterford fair had good weather. They had it brought earlier into the season because so many years had been rainy and cold. George went down a couple of times; but not many people on the road took it in. Today is a beautiful day outside but the air has a feeling of fall.

Last night Frank and I kept hearing a funny noise on the porch. Frank put on the porch light and discovered a skunk was in the garbage basket. The light apparently scared him away without leaving his calling card.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aylward were dinner guests. Mr. Aylward wasn't feeling up to par as he had the misfortune of having the rungs break on the ladder as he was getting off his roof. The ladder then went backward with Mr. Aylward, giving him quite a shaking up. The Aylward's son, Bob, of Connecticut, left early Sunday morning after visiting relatives for a week.

Sunday our son, Ira, called from Tennessee; Wilfred from Okinawa; and Frankie visited for a while.

Friday Frank Benson went to the fair to watch the animal pulling.

Saturday the Benson's, Margaret Belanger, Marie Swan and Toots Sciaraffa went to the dance in Harrison.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson went to the funeral of Velma Skilling of Oxford. Mrs. Skilling is aunt of Elsie Sprague Tucker, the Raleigh woman on this road.

Brian and Eric Anderson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Anderson, attended vacation Bible School at Gospel Center last week.

Pat Anderson and two boys visited Sandy Smith and family, Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H., over the week end.

Quite a few of the young ones from this road were in the parade for Sudbury Canada Days. Shilo and Misty, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins had a covered wagon and were dressed as some of the first settlers and received first prize. Amy and Mary Beth Hanson depicted the last Indian raid of Bethel and received second prize. These are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hannon. Sarah and Jessica Coolidge, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Coolidge were dressed in old fashioned costumes. Dawn Seames, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Seames was dressed as an Indian.
